St. James's, January 25.

THE following Addreſs of the Governors, Juſtices of the Peace, High Sheriff, Clergymen and Freeholders of the County of Galway, in the Kingdom of Ireland, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governors, Juſtices of the Peace, High-Sheriff, Clergymen and Freeholders of the County of Galway, in the Kingdom of Ireland.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Proteſtants of this County, humbly beg Leave, with the moſt joyful Hearts, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions.

Words are wanting to expreſs our equal Aſtoniſhment and Abhorrence of the moſt unnatural Rebellion, now raiſed and carried on in North-Britain, againſt your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, in Favour of an abjured Pretender, educated in the Maxims of Tyranny and arbitrary Government, and one who has conſtantly imbibed from the Boſom of the Popes of Rome, the abſurd, ſuperſtitious, and bigotted Principles of Popery. From ſo traiterous and wicked an Attempt, ſupported by ſuch foreign Power, and under ſuch Influence (which can never act in Contradiction to itſelf) what Evils have we not to dread? Fatal Experience, yet freſh in the Memory of many of your Proteſtant and loyal Subjects in this Kingdom, and the Self-evident Principles of Reaſon and Self-Preſervation, demonſtrate to us, that our Religion, Laws, Liberty and Property (thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings of human Life) can only, under God, ſubſiſt and be ſecured to us, by the gracious Protection and Government of your Majeſty and your Royal Family: And we beſeech you to accept of our moſt ſincere Fidelity, and inviolable Attachment (already ſo often confirm'd by Oaths) to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government; which we are moſt firmly determined to ſupport (as far as is in our Power) with our Lives and Fortunes, againſt this and all other Pretenders whatſoever: It being much more eligible to have no Being at all, than to bear it with the Loſs of the moſt valuable Bleſſings, and of all that is dear to us; which we have long enjoy'd, and moſt earneſtly pray to the Almighty, may be for ever continued to us, and our lateſt Poſterity, under your Majeſty and your Royal and moſt Illuſtrious Houſe.

The following Addreſs of the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity Houſe in Kingſton upon Hull, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Honourable Major General Pulteney, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Guild or Brotherhood of Maſters and Pilots, Seamen of the Trinity Houſe in Kingſton upon Hull.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THAT we may not ſeem inſenſible of the many invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's moſt happy Adminiſtration, nor unwilling to join with the common Voice of our our Country; we beg Leave, with Sentiments as warm with Duty, Loyalty and Gratitude, as the moſt zealous of your Majeſty's Subjects have already ſhewn, to declare our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the wicked and unnatural Rebellion yet ſubſiſting in theſe your Majeſty's Dominions.

And altho' your Majeſty's Arms, by the Bleſſing of God, under the Conduct and Bravery of his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland, have had all the Succeſs, which from the invincible Bravery of your Forces, and the experienced Abilities of their Commanders, might reaſonably be expected; yet we eſteem it our Duty, as well as Intereſt, ſo long as the leaſt Spark of Rebellion or Diſaffection appears in theſe Kingdoms, to be provided againſt all the Dangers and Inſults that may happen either from Foreign or Domeſtick Enemies.

We humbly beg Leave therefore to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are reſolved to exert ourſelves in our particular Stations, eſpecially in the Care of the Artillery of this Town, committed to us by Authority delegated from your Majeſty, in the Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Royal Family; and in Vindication of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; and in Support of our Trade: Since it is owing chiefly to this, that we have it in our Power to contribute to the general Defence of this Nation.

That the Divine Providence may protect your Majeſty and your Royal Family; make you victorious over all your Enemies, and continue the Succeſſion of the Crown in your Royal Line to the lateſt Poſterity, is the earneſt Prayer of us your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the Seventh Day of January, in the Year of our Lord One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates, Town Council, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Selkirk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Murray, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrats, Town-Council, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Selkirk.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Magiſtrats, Town-Council, and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Selkirk, beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our inviolable Attachment and unfeigned Affection to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and of our utter Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the unnatural Rebellion now raging in the Kingdom.

Deeply ſenſible of the many Bleſſings we enjoy under our preſent free and happy Conſtitution, which can only be ſecured to us by the Preſervation of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in your Royal Houſe, we deſire to declare to your Majeſty, that we are ready and willing to employ our Fortunes, and hazard our Lives, in Oppoſition to this traiterous Attempt upon our Religion and Liberty; which, if ſucceſsful, will unavoidably render our Fortunes precarious, and our Lives inſupportable.

In Proof of the Sincerity of theſe Aſſertions, we beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty the Aſſociation we have voluntarily entred into, from a deep Conviction, that in this critical Conjuncture, it is the Duty of every Community, as well as of every Individual, to act in ſuch a Manner, as if on them alone depended the Safety of the whole.

The following Aſſociation of the Magiſtrates, Town-Council and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Selkirk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Murray, Eſq; their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE the Magiſtrats, Town Council and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Selkirk, fill'd with the higheſt Indignation at the open and horrid Rebellion now carrying on in the Kingdom by the avowed Enemies of our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State, think it our indiſpenſable Duty to exert ourſelves to the utmoſt, in Oppoſition to this unnatural and flagitious Attempt, and even at the Hazard of our Lives and Eſtates, to do every Thing that may be conducive to the Support of the Eſtabliſhed Government, and to the Safety of his Majeſty King George the Second, our only lawful and rightful Sovereign; We therefore, whoſe Names are hereto ſubſcribed, in Compliance with this our Duty, and in order to make it appear to the World how highly we value our preſent glorious Conſtitution, whereby we are ſo fully ſecured in the undiſturbed Enjoyment of theſe natural Rights, which are the Claim of all Mankind, but the Poſſeſſion of Britons alone, do, by this Writing, in the moſt ſolemn and publick Manner, all and every one of us, bind and oblige ourſelves to aſſemble and take up Arms, and exert ourſelves in every Way which may may tend to annoy the Enemy, and reſtore the Tranquillity of the Kingdom; promiſing to be particularly careful to preſerve the Peace in our own Borough, and at the ſame Time to hold ourſelves in Readineſs to march whereſoever his Majeſty ſhall judge our Service will moſt contribute to the ſpeedy Suppreſſion of this unnatural Rebellion. Done at Selkirk the Fourteenth Day of December, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five Years.

Hague, Jan. 28, N. S. The States General are ſettling a new Promotion of General Officers, nominating their Staff for the enſuing Campaign, and preſſing the ſeveral Confederates to furniſh their reſpective Quotas to all the Petitions, as they are called here, or Eſtimates neceſſary to defray the preſent Exigencies of the Republick. The Council of State is making new Contracts for the Field Artillery Horſes, Ammunition Waggons, &c.

Edinburgh, Jan. 20. Yeſterday a Court Martial was ordered for the Tryal of ſome Officers and Men who behaved ill in the late Action, of which Brigadier General Mordaunt is Preſident, and the Proceedings began this Morning. The Pretender's Son march'd back to Stirling Saturday Afternoon. That Morning the Rebels ſummon'd the Caſtle there to ſurrender, and again in the Afternoon, but General Blakeney's Anſwer was, That he had always been looked upon as a Man of Honour, and that the Rebels ſhould find he would die ſo. The Army is preparing to move from hence again, the Cannon and Stores being on the Road from Berwick and Newcaſtle. As yet we have heard but of 30 of our Men who were made Priſoners by the Rebels, and carried to Stirling, one half of which belong'd to the Glaſgow Regiment; and we have alſo an Account of three Officers wounded. The others, who are miſſing, it is to be feared are killed, particularly Sir Robert Munro, Lieutenant Colonels Whitney, Powell, and Biggar, though as yet we have no abſolute Certainty, and cannot form a Liſt. One hundred and ſeventy Men, ſuppoſed to have been loſt, got on Board a Veſſel at Barronſtounneſs, and came in here this Day, and more are continually coming in. The Loſs of the Rebels is, by all Accounts, conſiderable; but the Number of their Killed and Wounded are not known. The Country People about Falkirk report, that ſix People of Note of their Army have been buried in that Neighbourhood, and that many of their Officers attended at thoſe Funerals. Sullivan is ſaid to be one of their Slain.

Whitehall, January 25.

His Majeſty having been pleaſed to direct his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland to repair to Scotland, to take upon himſelf the Command of the Army there, his Royal Highneſs ſet out upon his Journey thither, between Twelve and One this Morning.

Whitehall, Jan. 17, 1745-6.

Whereas an anonymous Letter directed to Sir Bourchier Wrey, Bart. at Exeter, and dated Moorfields, was about the End of laſt Month, received by the ſaid Sir Bourchier Wrey, threatening him for promoting an Aſſociation of his Majeſty's Subjects for the Publick Defence. His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering, and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon, or Perſons, who wrote the ſaid Letter, is graciouſly pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he, ſhe or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, I do hereby promiſe a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Perſon making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, upon the Conviction of the Offender, or Offenders.

Bourchier Wrey.

Navy Office, January 17, 1745.

The Principal Officers and Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy do hereby give Notice to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as are poſſeſſed of Bills carrying Intereſt, regiſtred in the Months of May and June laſt, and payable on the Courſe of the Navy, or Tranſports, that they may, on bringing the ſaid Bills to the Navy Office, have the Intereſt that ſhall become due thereon to the 3d of February now next enſuing, added to the principal Sum, and the Bills aſſigned; and on carrying the ſame to the Office of the Treaſurer of his Majeſty's Navy in Broad-ſtreet, on or before the aforeſaid 3d of February, receive Tallies and Orders on the Land Tax for the Year 1746, carrying Intereſt at the Rate of 4 l. per Cent. per Annum, to the Amount and in Diſcharge of what ſhall be due on their ſaid Bills reſpectively.

Navy-Office, Dec. 20, 1745.

As the Paſſing the Accounts of the Right Honourable Mr. Clutterbuck, and Sir Charles Wager, late Treaſurers of his Majeſty's Navy; as likewiſe the Accounts of William Corbett, Eſq; are carrying on at this Office with all the Expedition that may be, it is recommended to ſuch Perſons as have had Bills aſſigned upon them by the Navy Board, and have not received their Money for the ſaid Bills, forthwith to call for the ſame; and all Perſons who have any Impreſts ſtanding out againſt them, and have not any Bills or Accounts in this Office to clear the ſaid Impreſts, are deſired forthwith to bring in their Bills or Accounts to diſcharge them, that ſo the ſaid Impreſts may not be brought to Account, and returned into the Exchequer, as otherwiſe they will be: And ſuch Perſons as have paſſed their Accounts, and have not taken up their Impreſts, are required to carry their Perfect Bills to the late Treaſurers Office, and to take up their Impreſts.

Navy-

Navy-Office, Dec. 20. 1745.

The Commiſſioners of his Majeſty's Navy hereby give Notice, that on Monday the 13th of January they will begin to recall, at the Pay Office in Broadſtreet the Ships Books paid by the Right Honourable Mr. Clutterbuck and Sir Charles Wager, late Treaſurers of his Majeſty's Navy; as alſo thoſe paid by William Corbett, Eſq; and will continue the ſame from Week to Week, till all Claims ſhall be ſatisfied; they therefore deſire all Perſons who have Demands on the ſaid Gentlemen, will forthwith apply for the ſame, that the ſaid Pay Books may be cloſed as ſoon as poſſible.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Company of the Saltoſh and Warren Galley Privateers, Captain Chriſtopher and John Huddy, who were preſent at the retaking of the Ship Grand Duke, and the taking of the St. Jaques, and are by the Articles entitled to Prize Money, that they may receive a further Dividend on their Shares in the ſaid Prizes, on Wedneſday the 29th Inſtant, from Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon till Two, at the King's Arms Tavern in Lombard-ſtreet, and ſo to continue every laſt Wedneſday in the Month, at the ſame Place, from Ten to Twelve in the Forenoon, till the Whole be paid.

Whereas the Saltaſh Privateer lately retook the Ship St. Joſeph, —— Emmett, Maſter, bound from Oporto to London, and brought her into Falmouth; and it appearing that the Cargo on board may ſuffer great Damages by laying in the ſaid Port of Falmouth, Part being new Wines and ſubject to fret, and other Part Fruit liable to rot, Application hath been made to the Judge of the Admiralty, for Leave to bring her to London, and a Commiſſion hath been decreed accordingly. This therefore is to acquaint the Owners, and all others who are concerned herein, that the ſaid Ship will be brought round forthwith. For further Particulars apply to Mr. Banks, Merchant, in Ironmonger Lane.

South-Sea-Houſe, London, Jan. 23, 1745.

At a General Court of the South Sea Company held this Day, the following Queſtion was put, viz.

That this Court doth agree, That the Dividend on the Trading Capital Stock, for the Half Year ended at Chriſtmas laſt, be One and three Quarters per Cent.

And the ſaid Queſtion being carried by the Hands, a Ballot was demanded for determining the ſame; which Ballot was agreed to be taken on Tueſday the 28th inſtant, at the ſaid Company's Houſe in Threadneedle-ſtreet.

The Court of Directors do therefore give Notice, that the ſaid Ballot will be taken on the ſaid Day, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning, and Five in the Afternoon, when the ſame will be cloſed.

The Court of Directors of the Governor and Company of the Bank of England give Notice, That a General Court will be held at the Bank on Wedneſday next the 29th Inſtant, at Eleven in the Forenoon, upon ſpecial Affairs.

Robert Lewin, Secretary.

Advertiſement to the Publick.

I Think it proper, in Teſtimony of private Gratitude, as well as publick Benefit, to give this Notice, of an extraordinary Cure performed, under God, and the great Skill of Mrs. Deane, Oculiſt, in New-ſtreet, by Fleet-ſtreet, London, on a Son and Neice of Mr. Joſeph Martineau, Watch-maker, in Orange-ſtreet by Leiceſter Fields, who having a long Time laboured under a terrible Diſorder of their Eyes, which could not be removed by any of the Phyſicians and Practitioners in the Eyes, to whom I had applied for Relief, at laſt met with a perfect Cure from the Hands of the aboveſaid Gentlewoman in a ſhort Time.

From my Houſe in Orange-ſtreet by Leiceſter Fields, Jan. 25, 1745-6.

as witneſs my Hand,
Joſeph Martineau.
